UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA
SAN FRANCISCO DIVISION

SYNAPTICS INCORPORATED, a Delaware corporation,

Plaintiff,

v.

ELANTECH DEVICES CORP., a corporation existing under the laws of Taiwan, R.O.C.,

Defendant.

Case No. CV 07 6434 CRB

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1 WHEREAS, the parties believe that certain information that may be divulged in this 2 litigation is likely to contain confidential research, development, or commercial information as 3 contemplated by Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure;

4 WHEREAS, the parties believe that such information may be relevant to the subject 5 matter involved in the pending action within the meaning of Rule 26(a),(b) of the Federal Rules 6 of Civil Procedure;

7 WHEREAS, the parties believe that it would serve the interests of the parties to 8 conduct discovery under a protective order pursuant to Rule 26(c) of the Federal Rules of 9 Civil Procedure; and

10 WHEREAS, the parties acknowledge that the requested protective order does not 11 confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery and that the protection 12 it affords extends only to the limited information or items that are entitled under the applicable 13 legal principles to treatment as confidential. The parties further acknowledge that this 14 Protective Order creates no entitlement to file confidential information under seal; Northern 15 District Local Rules set forth the procedures that must be followed and reflects the standards 16 that will be applied when a party seeks permission from the Court to file material under seal.

17 IT IS HEREBY STIPULATED AND AGREED, by and between Synaptics 18 Incorporated (“Synaptics”) and Elantech Devices Corporation (“Elantech”) through their 19 respective counsel, that the following Stipulated Protective Order (“Stipulated Protective 20 Order”) may be entered by the Court pursuant to Local Rule 7-12 to give effect to the 21 stipulations set forth below:

22 1.0 Definitions.

23 1.1 “Designating Party” means any party or any non-Party producing documents or 24 information that is designated under this Stipulated Protective Order.

25 1.2 “Receiving Party” means any party receiving documents or information 26 designated under this Stipulated Protective Order.

27 1.3 “Confidential Information” means a Document or information that has not been 28 made public and that a Designating Party believes to be of a proprietary business or technical nature, the disclosure of which is likely to have the effect of causing harm to the competitive position of the person, firm, partnership, corporation, or other organization from which the information was obtained.

1.4 “Highly Confidential Code” means a Document or information that qualifies as Confidential Information and constitutes or contains any electronic or computer code, including, but not limited to software, firmware, source code, object code, listing files generated by compilers or assemblers, intermediate files created during the build process, test programs and scripts, test results, and source or object code for associated tools (hereinafter “Code”).

1.5 “Document” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in Rule 34(a), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

1.6 “Employee(s)” means all permanent employees and those temporary personnel who are providing legal, secretarial, clerical and/or administrative services only.

2.0 Designation of Confidential Information and Highly Confidential Code

2.1 Each Designating Party who produces or discloses any material that the Designating Party reasonably believes to comprise or contain Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code may designate the same CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL CODE.

2.2 Documents may be designated as CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL CODE by clearly marking the Documents, prior to providing copies thereof to a Receiving Party.

2.3 A Designating party that inadvertently fails to mark information as CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS’ EYES ONLY or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL CODE at the time of production shall be allowed to correct such failure at any time. In that event, the Designating Party shall provide notice in writing to all Receiving Parties, accompanied by appropriately marked substitute copies of such information. Upon receipt of such notice, a Receiving

1 Party will take appropriate steps to assure that the previously unmarked
2 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code is treated as Confidential 3 from that time forward pursuant to the terms of this Stipulated Protective Order.

4 2.4 An answer to a request for written discovery responses may be designated as 5 Confidential Information by denoting the answer or a portion thereof
6 CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or HIGHLY 7 CONFIDENTIAL CODE.

8 2.5 A deposition transcript or portion thereof may be designated as Confidential 9 Information by making such designation on the record. Counsel attending a 10 deposition who elects not to designate any portion of the transcript as 11 CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or HIGHLY 12 CONFIDENTIAL CODE on the record shall have ten (10) business days 13 following the receipt of the transcript from the court reporter to make such 14 designation. Notice thereof shall be made in writing to the reporter, with copies 15 to all counsel, designating the portions of the transcript that contain Confidential 16 Information or Highly Confidential Code and directing the reporter to mark that 17 portion of the transcript accordingly.

18 3.0 Disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code.

19 3.1 In the absence of written permission from the providing party or an order from 20 the Court, Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code may only be 21 disclosed to the following persons:

22 3.1.1 Outside counsel for any party to this litigation and all necessary 23 secretarial, clerical and paralegal personnel assisting such counsel, 24 except that such Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code 25 shall not be disclosed to any attorney involved in prosecuting patent 26 applications relating in any way to touch pad technology.

27 3.1.2 Qualified persons transcribing or memorializing testimony involving 28 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code and their

1 Employees whose duties require access to Confidential Information or 2 Highly Confidential Code;

3 3.1.3 Independent experts and/or consultants retained by counsel for a party to 4 this litigation subject to Section 4.0 of this Stipulated Protective Order.

5 3.1.4 Any deposition witness who (1) previously had access to the 6 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code; (2) was 7 employed by the Designating Party at the time the Confidential 8 Information or Highly Confidential Code was created, in a position to 9 know that information or code; (3) is, at the time of the deposition, 10 employed by the Designating Party, or (4) is an independent expert or 11 consultant qualified to receive Confidential Information or Highly 12 Confidential Code under Section 4.0 of this Stipulated Protective Order.

13 3.1.5 The Court and the Court's staff.

14 3.2 No persons specified in Section 3.1.1 or 3.1.3 shall have access to Confidential 15 Information without having first read, acknowledged and agreed in writing (in 16 the form attached hereto as Exhibit A) to be bound by this Stipulated Protective 17 Order. A file of all such written acknowledgment shall be kept by the Party 18 obtaining them. With respect to persons specified in Section 3.1.3, copies of 19 such written acknowledgments shall be provided to all counsel of record as 20 provided in Section 4.0 of this Stipulated Protective Order. Persons who are 21 permitted access to Confidential Information under this Stipulated Protective 22 Order solely for clerical or administrative purposes, and who do not retain 23 copies or extracts thereof, are not required to execute written acknowledgments.

24 3.3 In the absence of written permission from the providing party or an order from 25 the Court, Highly Confidential Code may only be disclosed to the persons 26 identified in paragraph 3.1.1 and 3.1.3 herein and may be disclosed only under 27 the following conditions and circumstances:
28

1 3.3.1 Outside counsel for the party to whom Highly Confidential Code is 2 produced may have at most two copies of each Code CD produced 3 hereunder. One of the two CD's held by outside counsel for the party to 4 whom Highly Confidential Code is produced may be provided to an 5 expert qualified under the provisions of paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2 herein for 6 any one period not to exceed 21 days, after which the CD must be 7 returned to such outside counsel. Code, whether stored on a CD or in 8 printed form, shall be maintained in a secure, locked location that 9 requires a key or combination access that only outside counsel or the 10 expert referenced in this paragraph possess.

11 3.3.2 Code may be accessed only from CDs on a password-protected 12 computer under the exclusive control of the expert or outside counsel.
13 (Permitted access to such Code includes the necessary electronic 14 copying of the Code incident to accessing it on a computer.) Such 15 computer must have a time-out function to be activated after no more 16 than ten minutes of inactivity. Such computer must be non-networked, 17 that is, it must be detached from internet, intranet, Ethernet, WAN, LAN 18 or other network of any kind. One-stand-alone printer may be attached 19 to the non-networked computer subject to the limitations on printing the 20 Code provided in subsection 3.3.4. Code may not be copied, 21 transmitted, saved or electronically duplicated in any way except as 22 provided herein. All such access to the Code CD shall be documented in 23 a log showing for each copy of Code, each person given possession of 24 the copy and the dates of such possession.

25 3.3.3 Printing of Code produced hereunder is permitted only with a 26 contemporaneously generated or applied label indicating that the printed 27 material is "Restricted and Highly Confidential Code Subject to 28 Protective Order" on each page. The party printing the Code shall

1 maintain a log of what specific Code is printed, how many printed copies 2 are made, the purpose for making each copy, and in whose possession 3 each printed copy is maintained.

4 3.3.4 Unless otherwise provided herein, Code produced hereunder may be 5 printed or otherwise copied only in connection with preparation or filing 6 of motions or other papers filed with the Court or exchanged among the 7 parties, used at deposition, or designated for use or used at hearing or 8 trial, or otherwise required by the Court. Excerpts of Code produced 9 hereunder may also be copied pursuant to this paragraph for the purpose 10 of inclusion in or as exhibits to pleadings filed by or exchanged between 11 the parties. A printed copy of excerpts of designated Code may be used 12 for annotation by an expert referred to in paragraph 3.3.2 above and such 13 annotated copy shall be kept as provided in section 3.3.2. Any Code 14 filed with the Court shall be filed under seal; any Code used at 15 deposition shall be treated in accordance with all other applicable 16 sections of this Stipulated Protective Order. Any other printed copies 17 generated but not used shall be immediately shredded.

18 4.0 Qualification of Independent Experts or Consultants.

19 4.1 Notice of Proposed Disclosure: Not less than seven (7) business days prior to 20 the initial disclosure of designated Confidential Information or Highly 21 Confidential Code to any person falling under the provisions of Section 3.1.3 of 22 this Stipulated Protective Order, the Party proposing to make such disclosure 23 shall serve (by facsimile and mail) the name, address, present employer and 24 title, and a signed acknowledgment in the form of Exhibit A of the proposed 25 recipient, as well as a copy of a current resume and list of engagements for the 26 past five years, on the Designating Party.

27 4.2 Objection to Proposed Disclosure: Within the period before disclosure of the 28 Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code to the proposed recipient,

1 the Party or non-Party whose Confidential Information or Highly Confidential 2 Code is concerned may serve (by facsimile and mail) a written objection to such 3 disclosure. Such an objection shall stay disclosure to the proposed recipient.
4 Failure to serve a written objection within seven (7) business days shall be 5 deemed approval of a proposed recipient.

6 4.3 Motion to Exclude Disclosure: If a written objection is served pursuant to 7 Section 4.2 and the objection is not resolved by the parties by meeting and 8 conferring within five (5) business days of service of the written notice of 9 objection described in Section 4.2, the party objecting to disclosure shall file a 10 motion, to be heard on the earliest date available, with respect to such objection 11 within ten (10) business days after service of the notice of objection. Failure to 12 file such a motion shall be deemed approval of a proposed recipient. The 13 disclosure of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code to such 14 proposed person shall be withheld pending the ruling of the Court on any such 15 motion.

16 5.0 Procedure for Challenging Designations.

17 5.1 Information obtained during discovery and designated by the providing party as 18 CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or HIGHLY 19 CONFIDENTIAL CODE under this Stipulated Protective Order shall be 20 deemed to be CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or HIGHLY 21 CONFIDENTIAL CODE unless the Court rules that it is not. If, after meeting 22 and conferring to discuss any dispute that arises due to any designation under 23 this Order, the parties are unable to reach agreement, a party may move this 24 Court for an Order that materials bearing a designation specified in Sections 2.1 25 through 2.5 hereof are improperly designated. In a motion, the party making the 26 designation of Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code shall have 27 the burden of proving that the material in question is within the scope of 28

1 protection contemplated by Rule 26 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and 2 this Stipulated Protective Order.

3 6.0 Procedure for Court Filings.

4 6.1 When Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code is filed with the 5 Court, the party offering it must file the relevant materials under seal, and the 6 documents shall bear the words, CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS' EYES 7 ONLY or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL CODE, and a statement substantially in 8 the following form:

9 CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL CODE
10 ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY 11 SUBJECT TO PROTECTIVE ORDER

12 The statement shall also appear on the front page of any written material.

13 6.2 Documents filed under seal pursuant to this Stipulated Protective Order shall be 14 filed according to Civil Local Rule 79-5.

15 7.0 If Confidential Information or Highly Confidential Code is disclosed to any person 16 other than in the manner authorized by this Stipulated Protective Order, the Party 17 responsible for the disclosure must immediately inform the Designating Party of all 18 pertinent facts relating to such disclosure and shall make every effort to prevent 19 disclosure by each unauthorized person who received such information.

20 8.0 This Stipulated Protective Order is intended to regulate the handling of Confidential 21 Information or Highly Confidential Code during the pretrial period of this litigation, 22 and is not intended to regulate the handling of Confidential Information or Highly 23 Confidential Code at trial, which is expected to be the subject of a further Stipulated 24 Protective Order and/or appropriate court orders. Nonetheless, this Stipulated 25 Protective Order shall remain in force and effect until modified, superseded or 26 terminated on the record by agreement of the parties hereto, by order of this Court, or 27 pursuant to Section 9.0 of this Stipulated Protective Order.
28

9.0 Within thirty (30) days of the final termination of this litigation, each Party that is subject to this Stipulated Protective Order shall destroy or return to the providing party all items designated CONFIDENTIAL -- ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY in accordance with Section 2.0 above, including all copies of such matter which may have been made, but not including pleadings or copies containing notes or other attorney work product that may have been placed there by counsel for the Receiving Party. Outside counsel may retain all pretrial and trial records as are regularly maintained by outside counsel in the ordinary course of business, but such records shall be maintained confidential in accordance with this Stipulated Protective Order. Upon the conclusion of this Action, the Receiving Party shall return the attorney copies of Highly Confidential Code to the Producing Party within 72 hours and shall shred any printed copies of such Highly Confidential Code that the receiving party has in its possession.

10.0 Documents produced by either Party in the related case, Elantech Devices Corp. v. Synaptics, Inc., Averatec, Inc., and Prostar Computer, Inc., Case No. 3:06-CV-08139 CRB, may be also be used by either Party in this case, Synaptics Incorporated v. Elantech Devices Corporation, Case No. CV-07 6434 CRB. Any such Documents, including documents marked CONFIDENTIAL – ATTORNEYS' EYES ONLY or HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL CODE, that were produced in the related case shall be handled in accordance with the provisions of this Stipulated Protective Order if used in this case.
